It is worth noting the luxury, exclusivity and its alternative design that make this a unique villa and different from those in the area. In addition, its design and structure will provide the property with plenty of natural light, and of course we cannot forget the location, as this property is located in one of the most luxurious areas of Puerto Pollensa. The construction completion date will be in 2026. Property available at SolMallorca Properties! Do not hesitate and contact us, or come and see us in any of our offices for more information.
