The second floor accommodates the additional bedrooms with full bath and a balcony overlooking the living room. Large attic for storage and a partially finished basement too! Relax in the tranquil, private country setting while being only a couple of miles from town and the convenience of Rt. 23. Additional features include cathedral ceiling, partial newer roof, and solar panels to ease costs. This home needs both mechanical and cosmetic repairs, but with TLC and personal creative touches it has the size and potential to meet so many needs!
