Just a few minutes from Valbonne, this authentic 1796 farmhouse, set in a 3-hectare estate, embodies the charm of bygone Provence. Offering around 800 m² of living space, this unique property will captivate you with its architectural and artistic character. The main farmhouse is built around vast reception rooms of inimitable style, including a dovecote lounge, a marble dining room, a cosy study, as well as singular spaces such as the Buddha room and the Zouaves bedroom. Each room reflects an assumed creativity and tells a story. The house has ten bedrooms, all with private bathrooms. A 90 m² janitor's apartment and a separate 45 m² guest house complete the ensemble.
