Welcome to this 1886 historic home located just minutes from downtown Galveston's entertainment, dining and shopping district and beautiful Galveston beaches. Situated on a corner lot, the home invites you in through a double front door and onto original hardwood flooring, which flows throughout the home. All of the original, unpainted woodwork remains, including the grand staircase, pocket doors between the dining and living spaces, transoms, window and baseboard trim. This 1900 Storm Survivor offers double galleries, high ceilings and original windows, with walk out windows onto the front porches. There is a driveway and garage behind the home and it is shared with a neighbor.
