A striking double-height entrance gallery makes a powerful first impression, framed by dramatic glass walls that flood the interior with an abundance of natural light, which highlights the meticulous attention to detail throughout the property. The open-plan living and dining areas are designed to capture the essence of indoor-outdoor living in Quinta do Lago, with full-height sliding glass walls on both sides that flow effortlessly onto sunlit terraces. A dual-aspect gas fireplace anchors the spacious living room, flowing into the dining area. The fully-equipped kitchen is a chef's dream, fitted with Miele appliances, a Bora induction hob with an integrated extractor, Quooker tap, and a discreet tea and coffee counter. A perfectly concealed butler's kitchen ensures effortless catering when hosting large groups, complete with dual Miele dishwashers, additional ovens, and a secondary Bora hob, conveniently located adjacent to the BBQ zone and alfresco dining terrace overlooking the private swimming pool. The villa's outdoor spaces are equally impressive. A heated saltwater pool with a sunken lounge and fire pit, expansive sunbathing terraces, and landscaped gardens create an entertainer's paradise.

Two rooftop terraces offer sweeping views over the Ria Formosa, sand dunes, and the Atlantic Ocean, providing an idyllic setting for sunset cocktails or intimate gatherings with a dramatic backdrop. Accommodation is thoughtfully designed over three levels and set aside from the main living zones. The ground floor presents three exquisite suites, two with walk-in dressing rooms and direct pool access, and the third opening to the garden. Upstairs on the first floor, two further suites enjoy private balconies and generous en-suite bathrooms, including the impressive primary suite with his-and-hers dressing rooms, twin bathrooms, and a large private terrace overlooking the pool and gardens. The lower level is dedicated to leisure and wellness. Here a large entertainment lounge with a bar is complemented by a walk-in wine cellar, remarkable home cinema, fully-equipped gym, and a luxurious spa including a sauna, steam room, and massage/therapy room. A two-bedroom guest annex with a kitchenette and living area ensures privacy and comfort – ideal accommodation for guests or staff. Practicality is enhanced by a laundry room with Miele appliances and an enclosed courtyard.

Additional features include a home office with shower room and custom cabinetry, integrated surround sound, electric curtains, automated lighting in bathrooms and dressing rooms, and large-format stone flooring that extends seamlessly to the terraces. The triple garage, complete with electric charging stations, accommodates vehicles with ease. Positioned close to the beach and surrounded by the tranquillity of Quinta do Lago's natural landscape, this villa represents an exceptional opportunity to enjoy modern luxury living in the Algarve. With breathtaking sea views, exceptional entertaining zones, a level of design rarely found, and a Quinta do Lago golf title, it promises a lifestyle that is both effortlessly sophisticated and truly extraordinary in one of the Algarve's most sought-after locations. - REF: LBRT361
