Located in Solera at Lakewood Ranch, this waterfront home sits on a quiet cul-de-sac on what is arguably one of the best lots in the neighborhood, offering a setting that's hard to match. Enjoy peaceful evenings with sunset views over the lake and a fountain that glows beautifully at night-this is the kind of backdrop that never gets old. With minimal traffic and a strong sense of neighborhood, it's a quieter, more established pocket of Lakewood Ranch that stands out. Inside, high ceilings and an open layout create a bright, airy atmosphere, giving everyone space to relax, unwind, or entertain.

Whether it's a quiet night in or hosting friends and family, the home adapts easily to how you live. The large primary suite is a true retreat, featuring a sitting area, an expansive walk-in closet, and a well-appointed bath. Downstairs, a guest bedroom and full bath offer privacy and flexibility for visitors or multi-generational living. The kitchen is designed for both everyday function and entertaining, with granite countertops, wood cabinetry, a spacious pantry, and a butler's pantry. Brand-new carpeting throughout adds a clean, move-in-ready feel. The home lives like new, without the typical delays or lingering issues that can come with new construction-it's already dialed in and ready to go. Solera is a fully completed community with low HOA fees that include landscaping and access to a community pool just steps away. Living in Lakewood Ranch means being close to A-rated schools, shopping, dining, golf, and everyday conveniences, in a neighborhood that feels established rather than under construction. This isn't just a place to live-it's a home where the setting, layout, and location all come together in a way that's getting harder to find. Don't miss the 3D tour-make sure this one is on your short list.
