Prime location just off the U of I campus, this American Four Square offers classic character and versatile potential. Inside, you'll find hardwood flooring, updated windows, tall ceilings, and a beautiful fireplace with surrounding built-in cabinets that anchor the main living space. The dining room overlooks a large, fenced backyard. The first floor also includes a full bathroom and an additional enclosed porch offering many possibilities for use. Upstairs, the second floor features four generously sized bedrooms and an additional full bathroom. With its functional layout, desirable location, and reasonable price, this property presents an excellent opportunity!
