BACK ON MARKET—NO FAULT OF THE HOME. Prior buyer was unable to obtain financing, creating a rare second opportunity to secure this beautifully designed Alturas home in Meridian's highly sought-after Bainbridge community. Situated on a private, oversized corner lot, this 2,424 sq ft residence offers mostly single-level living with the added flexibility of an upstairs bonus room. The open-concept layout is filled with natural light and anchored by a chef's kitchen featuring quartz countertops, custom soft-close cabinetry, stainless steel appliances, a walk-in pantry, and a large island perfect for entertaining.

The primary suite provides a calming retreat, while the bonus room is ideal for a home office, gym, or media space. Step outside to a covered patio, raised garden beds, and a private backyard enhanced by a PAID solar system for energy efficiency. Bainbridge residents enjoy two community pools, parks, and walking paths, all just minutes from Costco, dining, and everyday conveniences. Homes like this rarely return to the market—don't miss your second chance. This is the opportunity buyers wait for, with incentives that truly move the needle.
