Tucked away on a lush corner lot in Desert Park Estates, this five bedroom, three bathroom property offers space, privacy, and versatility in the heart of Palm Springs. Surrounded by mature trees and layered greenery, the home enjoys a serene, garden like setting rarely found in the desert. A private front gate opens to a tranquil courtyard, creating a warm and welcoming entry to the main residence, which features four bedrooms and two bathrooms with comfortable gathering spaces and an easy indoor outdoor flow.

A private, oversized casita adds exceptional flexibility, complete with its own living room, kitchenette, bedroom and bath, ideal for guests, extended family, rental potential or a dedicated work from home retreat. The property is further enhanced by a 3 car garage, offering ample space for vehicles, storage or recreational toys. Five bedroom homes in Palm Springs are not often available at this price point, making this a compelling opportunity for those seeking additional space without compromising location or privacy. No HOA and you own the land.
