DENTON STREET, WANDSWORTH,
LONDON, SW18

A smart and beautifully presented two double bedroom ground floor Victorian garden flat on a charming cul-de-sac. Internally the entrance hall leads through to a front reception or double bedroom and on to the open-plan kitchen reception, which in turn faces out onto a south-facing private rear garden. In terms of accommodation, the property is arranged with two double bedrooms and a main bathroom. Specific further highlights of this well-located flat include a plethora of storage options throughout, a new boiler and high ceilings. Denton Street is an established south-west London residential enclave with a tremendous aspect looking onto the Roman St. Ann's church and its grounds.

£525,000

The boutique restaurants, cafes and shops of Wandsworth Town, Garratt Lane, St. John's Hill and Northcote Road are close at hand. Wandsworth Common and King George's Park are within easy reach. While Wandsworth Town, Earlsfield and Clapham Junction stations are both nearby for access to central London and beyond. The local schools are both plentiful and highly reputable.
