ARCHEL ROAD, LONDON, W14

A substantial freehold property on Archel Road offering 1,962 sq. ft. of versatile living space, currently arranged as two separate dwellings. The lower ground floor comprises a spacious two-bedroom flat with private garden access. Above, the ground to second floor provides a generous four-bedroom home with a bright living room and separate dining room. The property offers excellent potential for extension and reconfiguration (subject to planning), including the possibility of creating a patio or combining into a single bespoke residence. Located in desirable West Kensington, this apartment benefits from a prime location with easy access to local amenities and transport links.
