

41

URSULA STREET, BATTERSEA, LONDON, SW11

£1,850,000

150 Years

JOHN D WOOD & CO.

London, Country & International Property

41

URSULA STREET, BATTERSEA, LONDON,
SW11

This semi-detached Victorian family house is in excess of 2,000 square feet and is situated within the Sisters Conservation area. The property is designed to a very high specification as well with great care and thought to the layout with modern day life in mind. On the ground floor there is superb living and entertaining space from the double reception room which leads through to the extended kitchen/dining room. Of particular note is the wonderful width throughout all of the rooms which gives a very good feeling of space. Furthermore, there is a most useful cloakroom as well as a separate utility room.

£1,850,000

The four bedrooms are all well proportioned and the principal bedroom has an ensuite bathroom and dressing area. A further benefit includes a Sonos sound system on the ground floor as well as in the master bedroom and ensuite bathroom. Some photos contain CGI furniture for marketing purposes. 4 Bedrooms, En Suite Bathroom, Bathroom, Shower Room, Double Reception Room, Kitchen/Dining Room, Cloakroom, Garden Reference BAT260047

