Set in the beloved Oakley CC neighborhood, this inviting Watertown two-family blends early-20th-century charm with modern updates. Perched on a corner lot, the home offers flexibility for multigenerational living, rental income, or condo conversion. The first-floor unit features an airy open layout with a bright family room, dining area, updated kitchen, two bedrooms, and two full baths. The upper unit lives like a single-family with two floors, five bedrooms, three full bathrooms, a cozy living room with wood-burning fireplace, classic dining room with built-in hutch, and an updated kitchen.
