The spacious primary suite features its own private bath and large walk-in closet, two additional generous size bedrooms and a full bath complete the upstairs and will surely fit any of your needs, while the attached 2-car garage opens into a cozy sitting room for everyday ease. There is no shortage of storage space here and the dry basement can easily be finished for even more living space. Step outside and imagine spring, summers, and even early fall spent in your heated inground gunite pool, surrounded by an expansive .67-acre yard-the largest in the neighborhood. With solar panels helping heat the pool and a dedicated pool house for storage, the outdoor space is ready to shine. With a brand new roof (April 2026) for piece of mind, air conditioning for those hot summer days, and an unbeatable location just a short walk to Mill Woods Park and minutes to shopping and dining, this is your chance to create something
