The outdoor space is where this property really stands out. The yard has been thoughtfully landscaped with lawn areas, terraced sections, and multiple spots to sit and unwind. There's also a separate outbuilding-perfect for tools, hobbies, or extra storage-adding flexibility to the space. A durable metal roof adds long-term peace of mind. You're just minutes from the Des Moines Marina, with waterfront dining, walking paths, and a great local feel. Saltwater State Park is close by as well, offering beach access, trails, and some of the best shoreline around. It's a location that gives you that relaxed coastal vibe while still being within easy reach of Seattle and Tacoma. If you've been looking for a place with real views, usable outdoor space, and a setting that feels calm but connected, this one is worth seeing in person.
