Ready to spend the summer on your own private terrace? Welcome home to 235 Monroe Street #4, a truly unique 2 bed, 1 bath residence in vibrant Southwest Hoboken. Through a private entrance, you'll enter into the open-concept living/dining area. The stunning kitchen features white quartz countertops with bar seating, stainless steel appliances, and beautiful mulled, double pane windows, where natural light floods in. 5" wide blank hardwood floors run throughout and exposed brick walls add Hoboken charm and character. Down the hall is a lovely full bath with heated floors and Carrara marble. Both bedrooms boast custom closets with ample storage.

Cooling: Central A/C

Open House 05.09.26 Sat 1:00 - 3:00 PM EDT

In the primary, a brand new ceiling fan provides an airy ambiance. Outside, you'll find a private, 225 sq ft Azek deck, the perfect place to relax with your morning coffee, a glass of wine, or dine al fresco. Other features include: brand new in-unit washer/dryer, central a/c, AKUVOX entry system, optional ADT security system in place, and basement storage. Southwest Hoboken is home to favorites like Cafexico, Cafe Sofia, Madison Park and splash pad (right outside your door!), the Downtown Farmer's Market on Thursdays from May-November, Fiore's, and so much more. Welcome home!
