In trendy Highland Park, this beautifully revitalized 1912 Cal Bungalow offers privacy and abundant space on a gated corner lot. The spacious great room beneath bead-board ceilings is anchored by a fireplace, with generous room for living, dining, and entertaining. Natural light is abundant and hardwood floors flow throughout. The kitchen is well-appointed with checkered flooring, stainless appliances, and designer tile. Four spacious bedrooms are arranged two up and two down, including a primary suite with a soaking tub; three bathrooms feature clean, modern finishes. A charming front porch and private back yard provide inviting spaces for morning coffee and dining alfresco.
