With two private entrances, separate fenced backyards, and charming brick-paver patios, the layout creates the perfect blend of independence and connection, ideal for enjoying morning coffee beneath the palms or hosting intimate evenings under the stars. The left side, unit 1886, spans 1,639 sq. ft. and features 4 bedrooms, 3 bathrooms, a screened lanai, gas range, stainless steel appliances, luxury quartz countertops, elegant tray ceilings, and a versatile floor plan perfectly suited for families, guests, or long-term rental income. The right side, unit 1884, offers 1,087 sq. ft. with 2 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, a light-filled sunroom, stainless steel appliances, quartz countertops, tray ceilings, and its own private fenced backyard, delivering warm coastal charm and easy everyday living. Both units include private indoor laundry rooms, backyards, and hurricane-impact windows, making this property truly move-in or rent-ready from day one. Beyond the home, Southpointe Shores welcomes you with quiet, tree-lined streets and optional HOA access to a private boat ramp and kayak launch perfect for sunset cruises, paddleboarding, or spontaneous days exploring Sarasota Bay.

Just minutes away, enjoy the world-renowned shores of Siesta Key, the vibrant arts, dining, and culture of Downtown Sarasota, plus the boutique shopping and neighborhood charm of The Landings and Gulf Gate Village. More than a duplex, this is a lifestyle investment where location, versatility, and coastal elegance come together. Live beautifully. Earn effortlessly. Expand when the time is right. Own your piece of Sarasota magic in Southpointe Shores.
