A beautifully remodeled main-level bathroom, new carpet, and newer roof add comfort and peace of mind. Outdoors, the lifestyle shines expansive decks, patios, and a private hot tub overlook towering Douglas firs and Western red cedars. Winding private trails, a dedicated garden area, and a fire pit create inviting spaces to relax and enjoy the setting. A small barn, additional outbuildings, covered storage, and ~1 acre of fenced pasture provide flexibility for animals, hobby farming, or potential equestrian use. Frequent wildlife sightings and a backdrop of 29 acres of protected Water District land enhance the sense of privacy, while still being just minutes to town and within the desirable Tahoma School District.
