Beautifully maintained and exceptionally located, this elegant condominium offers comfort, convenience, and a spacious floor plan that lives more like a home. Perched above the city with westerly territorial views, the light-filled interior features an open great room design with flexible living and dining spaces, a cozy gas fireplace, and seamless access to the view balcony. The spacious kitchen opens beautifully to the main living area, creating an ideal layout for everyday living and entertaining. Rarely found, both bedrooms feature their own en-suite baths, including a stunning primary suite with Juliet doors that invite in natural light and fresh air.
