SLAIDBURN STREET, CHELSEA,
LONDON, SW10

A beautifully presented period family house at the end of this secluded cul de sac, which runs north off King's Road. The house is well arranged, with a double reception room on the ground floor, which leads to a dining area with banquette seating, and a modern fitted kitchen beyond. Upstairs, two double bedrooms share a family bathroom, and there is a study or single bedroom in addition. The principal bedroom is on the second floor, with a bathroom ensuite, which opens onto a small terrace. Stairs lead to roof terrace at the top of the house, which offers a wonderful entertaining space, or a secluded place to relax with a book.
