The kitchens include a breakfast nook, ample cabinetry, and inside utility area, making everyday living comfortable and functional. The primary bedroom easily accommodates larger furniture, while two additional upstairs bedrooms each feature two closets and share a full bathroom, offering generous storage and space. Additional highlights include:

- Roof recently passed inspection
- One unit currently leased, providing immediate cash flow from day one
- Strong rental potential in a high-demand South Tulsa location.

Looking to expand your investment portfolio? An identical duplex is also available on the same street (both sides already leased), offering the opportunity to purchase one or both properties. Conveniently located near 71st Street between Sheridan & Memorial, providing easy access to shopping, dining, schools, and major Tulsa amenities. South Tulsa duplex investment opportunities like this are rare — schedule your showing today!
