BUXTON MEWS, LONDON, SW4

A rare and immaculately presented detached three-bedroom home set within a secure, privately-owned gated mews with off-street parking, a genuinely uncommon find in this part of south London. Extensively modernised to an exceptional specification, the property combines impeccable interior design with smart wifi-enabled technology and outstanding energy efficiency, including a heat pump system, underfloor heating and air conditioning throughout.

£1,300,000

The partially open-plan ground floor has been designed with entertaining in mind, featuring a generous reception area, a striking fully-fitted kitchen with island, and twin bi-fold doors that open onto a stylish, tranquil and low-maintenance private garden. A spacious utility room and ample storage in the welcoming entrance hall complete the ground floor. Upstairs, the first floor offers two well-proportioned double bedrooms with fitted wardrobes and a beautifully appointed family bathroom. The entire second floor is devoted to a luxurious principal suite, complete with built-in storage, a walk-in dressing area and a large private balcony - the outdoor spaces designed in collaboration with a Chelsea Flower Show-winning designer. Ideally located just a 10-minute walk from Stockwell, Nine Elms and Clapham North tube stations and three minutes from central bus routes, with Clapham High Street and Wandsworth Road overground all within easy reach.
