Rarely does a home offer this combination of character, updates, and location. Steps from Centre Street shops and restaurants, the MBTA Needham Line, and Millennium Park's trails and green space, yet with tree-lined streets that feel a world apart from the city. This 4-bedroom home impresses on the first floor with intricate original woodwork and stunning stained glass windows, carefully preserved. High ceilings and large windows flood the space with natural light. A fully renovated full bath and newly added half bath bring modern convenience, while the front porch adds classic curb appeal. Updated electrical and seven mini splits provide efficient heating and cooling throughout.
