Located just outside of Porter Square, this property presents a unique opportunity for owner-occupants, investors and developers alike. Sited on a level lot with a driveway, the rear yard gives more room for possible expansion. Consisting of two units with a strong rental history and separate heating systems, one offers 4 beds & 2 baths and the other 3 beds & 1 bath. The upper unit boasts attic space, which would easily allow for additional living space. Investment opportunities are endless, as the next steward may choose to convert to condos, a single family, or potentially build a larger structure in its place.
