Welcome home to this classic 1930 stone-front Colonial, blending original character, thoughtful updates, and easy outdoor living. The wide open front porch is a signature feature, offering a gracious place to sit and take in the idyllic upper Wyoming neighborhood setting. Inside, hardwood floors, original built-ins, and a wood-burning fireplace bring warmth & architectural detail. The foyer and living room lead to a sun-drenched family room with a french door to the front porch. The 2023 gut-renovated kitchen is a chef's delight. Open to the dining area, it features quartz counters, tile backsplash, a Thermador appliance package with an induction stove & a double smart oven.

The second level finds 3BRs & a full bath w/ a heated floor, plus a third level BR and full bath. The renovated walk-out basement includes a spacious recreation space with laundry, utilities, storage and access to two single car garages. A new side deck is perfect for BBQing, with a stone path to a tucked-away backyard sitting area finished in gravel and framed by greenery. A screened-in back porch adds another quiet retreat, with NYC winter views. Additional improvements include the 2018 roof, 2022 water heater, and 2023 furnace. Just .9 miles to NYC Midtown Direct train, South Orange Village shops, restaurants, and seasonal Farmers Market. South Mountain Reservation hiking trails are close by; Flood's Hill is less than 1 mile away for sledding and year-round events including free summer concerts.
